

Overview

Goa is best known for its idyllic beaches and the water sports that they host. One of the best ways to spend a day at the beach is by feasting on a barbecue and snorkelling. It is one of the most enjoyable water sports that you can partake in and requires little to no practice! South Goa is known for its beautiful beaches and sparkling white sand. Spend an entire day here in South Goa swimming, snorkelling, having fun and enjoying the barbecue at your own relaxing pace. Snorkelling is done on Monkey Island, where you'll get a stunning view of the colourful corals, topical fish and a view of the striking Goan coastline. The delicious traditional barbecue spices up the day and relax in the knowledge that you are well looked after by the local guide who accompanies you on this tour. The snorkelling equipment and transport is included in this tour leaving no room for you to be inconvenienced in any manner!
